NARRATIVE:

Robert Macconnell has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include battery against a police officer, prison escape, assault likely to cause great bodily injury, vehicle theft, being under the influence of controlled substances, trespassing, vandalism, burglary, transport and sales of controlled substances, possession of access cards with intent to defraud, receiving stolen property, petty theft and public intoxication. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being 6 year term for assault likely to cause great bodily injury. Macconnell was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 05, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Macconnell qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for battery against a police officer is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
